United Way's Emerging Leaders Circle Set to Launch

Learn more at reception, Thursday, Jan. 15, 2009

San Luis Obispo, Calif. – Come learn more about United Way's Emerging Leaders Circle at a reception to be held Thursday, January 15 from 4:30 – 6:30pm at Café Roma in San Luis Obispo. Light appetizers and beverages will be served.

As community needs increase and available funds to address those needs decrease, the call for new and passionate, intelligent and committed volunteers becomes essential. Launching in 2009, the Emerging Leaders Circle (ELC) is recruiting young professionals (ages 25 – 45) who support the United Way and are willing to share their talent, spirit, and resources for the betterment of our community. ELC members are up-and-coming community leaders that mobilize their caring power in order to improve the education, income and health of the SLO County community. They are compassionate, generous, motivated individuals who share the common values of professionalism, integrity, diversity, volunteerism, leadership and philanthropy.

For more information about the Emerging Leaders Circle or to RSVP for the upcoming event, contact Charlene Rosales at croales@unitedwayslo.org or (805) 541-1234 ext. 14.
